Marriages: This great sacrament of vocation is a joyous time, but also a time of very serious spiritual preparation. The responsibility assumed by the couple and the Church is significant. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek to prepare for the second day and beyond. The Bishops of NJ have adopted a policy to assist in this preparation. Attendance at Engaged Encounter, Pre-Cana, or another approved marriage prep program, and individual sessions with a priest or deacon are required of all couples. Couples should contact the Rectory one year in advance of the intended marriage, and before finalizing other detail particularly reception facilities.

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Parents seeking baptism for their children are to attend Baptismal Prep Class. This can be arranged by calling the parish office. Parents should be registered members of the parish. Godparents, those who represent the church in the life of the child, must be practicing Catholics, if they are married, they must have been married in the Church, practice the faith regularly, and must obtain a sponsor certificate from their home parish. Please choose Godparents with these criteria in mind.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals: Please call the Rectory.

Please remember Sacred Heart Church in your last will and testament. Thank you for your support.

Is Anyone Among You Sick?

One of the principle ministries of Jesus and His disciples was the healing of the sick. In the New Testament's Letter of James, 5:14-16, we read:

"Is anyone among you sick?

He should summon the presbyters (priests) of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint [him] with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven."

The ministry of healing in the Church continues from the time of Christ to this very day in the sacrament of "anointing of the infirm." Therefore, when we have serious or chronic illnesses, we can avail ourselves of this gift given to us by Christ. The sacrament should be administered in addition to the proper medical care of a physician. We might desire a specific kind of healing, and it is good to pray for that intention, in addition to adding the phrase from the Our Father, "Thy will be done." The sacrament can be administered to a person many times in their life.

Many people are afraid to receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick. When we hear someone say they are calling a priest for us, we might get upset and think we are dying, but we should remember that the primary intention of anointing is for healing. Its' purpose is to reassure us that Christ is present with us in our struggles, and to give us the healing, strength, courage and peace we desire.

With this purpose in mind, we encourage you to consider this sacrament when you are facing a serious and/or chronic illness. If you are scheduled to go to the hospital, you can approach one of the priests after Mass to be anointed, or you can make an appointment with him for a later time. Most hospitals also have a chaplaincy office, or at least a way to contact a priest to come and administer the sacrament, and they can also provide Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist who can visit you, pray with you, and administer Communion to you when you are hospitalized.

At a time of emergency, or when someone is dying, or it seems as though there is a good chance they might die, are other times to call for a priest. Many are afraid to mention death or the danger of death in front of the person, and it may or may not be the time to mention it, but call for a priest. Too often people wait until the person is no longer conscious or able to respond to the

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?

CHOOSING SIDES

My great concern is not whether God is on our side; my great concern is to be on God's side.

—Abraham Lincoln
