Marriages: This great sacrament is a joyous time, but also a time of serious spiritual preparation. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek to prepare for the second day and beyond. The Bishops of NJ have adopted a policy to assist in this preparation.

Attendance at Engaged Encounter, Pre-Cana, or another approved marriage prep program, and individual sessions with a priest or deacon are required of all couples. Couples should contact the Rectory one year in advance of the intended marriage, and before finalizing other details particularly reception facilities.

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Parents seeking baptism for their children are to attend a Baptismal Prep Class. This can be arranged by calling the parish office. Parents should be registered members of the parish. Godparents, those who represent the church in the life of the child, must be practicing Catholics, if they are married, they must have been married in the Church, practice the faith regularly, and must obtain a sponsor certificate from their home parish. Please choose Godparents with these criteria in mind.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals: Please call the Rectory.

2 Corinthians 9:7

From Father Doug:

“Devotion to the Eucharist is an important way of deepening our love of Christ, and of drawing us to a deeper participation in the paschal mystery of His Passion, death, and resurrection.” (Prenotandum, Book of Eucharistic Devotions.)

You may remember a few years back when a Consecrated Host was obtained by Satanists for use in a public “black mass”. There was justifiably a great outcry. Desecration of the Most Blessed Sacrament is one of the gravest of sins. More recently 5 Consecrated Catholic Hosts were offered for bidding for desecration on Etsy.com, a competitor of Ebay.com. Most people, even Catholics see no real issue with this. There is indeed a grave issue with this; the desecration of the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Blessed Lord who gives Himself freely to us in His Most Blessed Sacrament.

What worries me is that faithful Catholics are not scandalized by this. The desecration must involve a validly Consecrated Host from a Catholic Mass, or the Divine Liturgy of The Orthodox Church. As a backhanded compliment, they are validating that true Transubstantiation occurs only in this communion of East and West.

So why do I care so much about this now? A couple of weeks ago a host was found on the floor in about the sixth row in one of our two parishes. An Extraordinary Ministry of the Sacrament found it and consumed it. Sometimes in the postconciliar Church there is a pressure for everyone to receive, with no thought about who is able and who is not. All of us need to be aware of those around us at Holy Mass to insure that they actually do consume the Most Blessed Sacrament. Many times children particularly who come from ecclesial communions that practice “open communion” will not consume the host immediately and their parents consider it “just a symbol” so it doesn’t matter. In many parishes the ushers watch closely to see that every Sacred Host is immediately consumed.

This is a good reminder for all of us to keep an open eye, especially on our young ones, to see that the gift of the Blessed Sacrament is “praised, blessed, worshipped, hallowed, and adored now and forever in the most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.”

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE , FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT

“Yet we hear them speaking in own tongues of mighty act of God.
Others said, scoffing “they had too much new wine.”

Today some hear of God’s love for all His people and His love of life and embrace it wanting more. They are Pro-life. Other pull back from His love and scoff at life. They are pro-choice.

Which are you?

HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER

We beseech you, O Lord, let the power of the Holy Spirit be always with us; let it mercifully purify our hearts, and safeguard us from all harm. Grant this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

May the Comforter, Who proceeds from You, enlighten our minds, we beseech you, O Lord, and guide us, as Your Son has promised, into all truth. We ask this through Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Holy Spirit, Sweet guest of My Soul, Abide In Me and Grant That I May Ever abide in Thee. Amen

FLAG DAY

Almighty God, bless our nation and make it true to the ideas of freedom, justice and brotherhood for all who make it great. Guard us from war, from fire and wind, from compromise, fear and confusion.

Be close to our president and our statesmen; give them vision and courage, as they ponder decisions affecting peace and the future of the world.

Make me more deeply aware of my heritage; realizing not only my rights but also my duties and responsibilities as a citizen. Make this great land and all its people know clearly your will, that they may fulfill the destiny ordained for us in the salvation of the nations and the restoring of all things in Christ. Amen

UNFAILING PRAYER TO SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA

"Blessed be God in His Angels and in His Saints"
O Holy St. Anthony, gentlest of Saints, your love for God and Charity for His creatures, made you worthy, when on earth, to possess miraculous powers. Encouraged by this thought, I implore you to obtain for me (request). O gentle and loving St. Anthony, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, whisper my petition into the ears of the sweet Infant Jesus, who loved to be folded in your arms; and the gratitude of my heart will ever be yours. Amen.

FACTS ON SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA

- Born Fernando Martins in Lisbon, Portugal
- When Fernando joined the Franciscan friars he changed his name to Anthony
- After traveling to Morocco, Anthony became sick and had to return to Portugal to recover. The return voyage was blown off-course and arrived in Sicily.
- When he recovered from his illness Anthony traveled to Tuscany and was assigned to the hermitage of San Paolo
- St. Anthony was once so fed up with the hard heartedness and heresies of the citizens of Rimini, Italy, he went to the town's riverbanks and preached to the fish instead. The townspeople realized they'd better listen when they saw the multitudes of fish show up!
- St. Anthony is venerated as the Patron Saint for lost articles and is credited with many miracles involving lost people, things and even lost spiritual goods

RECONCILED DIVERSITY

A few years ago, during Rome's quiet summer, Pope Francis took a day off to visit privately with some old friends, whose identity took Catholic Italy by surprise: Evangelical Protestants. They welcomed Francis to their Pentecostal Church of Reconciliation, where Francis asked pardon for Catholic persecutions and celebrated the Holy Spirit's "pentecostal work." Unlike Satan, declared Francis, who creates division among God's children, the Holy Spirit creates a diversity rich and beautiful. And unity; not uniformity, Francis specified, but unity in diversity. Francis named the Spirit's gift "reconciled diversity." Pentecost's rich treasury of scriptural readings, for Saturday's vigil and Sunday's morning liturgy, traces the Holy Spirit's work from creation's beginning, through Jesus' resurrection, into the church's earliest days, now into our days. Kindled in our hearts, the Spirit's gentle fire is ours to share generously, even with those most strikingly different from us. All hearts are Spirit-warmed by reconciled diversity.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today we are at the fiftieth day of the Easter celebration: seven weeks of seven days, a week of weeks, now culminating in a festival fiftieth day. While the liturgical color of the Easter season is gold, on this last day we have red. For the first thousand years of the church, there were no firm rules for using colors. Only wealthy churches could afford a full array of colors, and most places used the best vestments, no matter the color, for the greatest feasts. The Church spelled out an exact plan for color, including red for Pentecost, only in 1570, but local differences held on until the 1800s.

Color experts tell us that red is a hot color, best used for fast-paced, upbeat, active experiences. It is hard to be neutral before red, as any matador will tell you. It invites commitment, draws you in. It is a stimulating color, engaging the eye, stirring hunger. It is the most fitting color for this day when we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit into our lives, a dynamic presence overturning neutrality in favor of passion and commitment.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — In one Spirit we are baptized into one body (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Romans 8:8-17.

Gospel — Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission (John 20:19-23) or John 14:15-16, 23b-26.

COME TO US, SPIRIT OF HOLINESS

Holy Spirit,
you banish fear from our hearts;
you bear witness in us that we are children of God;
we pray to you:

Remove from our hearts the spirit of slaves;
place in us the spirit of adopted children to make us cry out, "Abba, Father!"
