13th Sunday in Ordinary Time June 30, 2019

Marriages: This great sacrament is a joyous time, but also a time of serious spiritual preparation. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek to prepare for the second day and beyond. The Bishops of NJ have adopted a policy to assist in this preparation.

Attendance at Engaged Encounter, Pre-Cana, or another approved marriage prep program, and individual sessions with a priest or deacon are required of all couples. Couples should contact the Rectory one year in advance of the intended marriage, and before finalizing other details particularly reception facilities.

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Parents seeking baptism for their children are to attend a Baptismal Prep Class. This can be arranged by calling the parish office. Parents should be registered members of the parish. Godparents, those who represent the church in the life of the child, must be practicing Catholics, if they are married, they must have been married in the Church, practice the faith regularly, and must obtain a sponsor certificate from their home parish. Please choose Godparents with these criteria in mind.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals: Please call the Rectory.

The 4th of July and Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness

As we approach this coming celebration of the 4th of July, we think of our country, our home, and give thanks to God for the gift of such a beautiful home, with abundant resources, and express our gratitude for all of those who sacrificed so much to secure and preserve life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, as the Declaration of Independence proclaims.

We in the United States are fortunate in that in addition to natural resources and beauty we enjoy in our nation, our home, we currently have a political/economic system that continues to foster these values. We also enjoy religious liberty and are proud that our nation is built upon a firm moral foundation.

We can't take our freedoms and our precious inheritance for granted. They have been bought with blood, sweat and tears, and the loss of many lives throughout the past, and our nation continues to foster these values at home and in our world.

Our way of life is not perfect, no political system is, and we have made many mistakes and committed many sins as a nation, but as we come to a fuller realization of them, we repent by correction our errors and moving forward.

Today, as in the past, we are facing several alarming situations that we need to confront, if we want to continue our heritage.

One is in regard to the first and foremost gift listed in the Declaration of Independence, and that is the gift of life. I never could have imagined that we would have a political party as we now have in the Democrat Party, that has as one of its key platform issues, the right to kill other human beings (even for frivolous reasons!) in the name of freedom of choice. It is a Satanic and evil platform, built on lies and deception, and must be denounced as anti-God, anti-moral and anti-human.

One who helps take, or who actually takes the life of a human fetus in the womb, or of an unborn or newborn baby, is guilty of killing a developing child of God, one who is defenseless and innocent of any wrongdoing. We are denying the child the very rights and liberties we say are at the very core of whoa we are and what we say we stand for as a nation.

This is a serious and fundamental issue that is facing our nation. Where do we stand? What do we believe? This cannot be put on the scales as one of the many other important issues facing our nation. It must precede all others, as life precedes liberty and the pursuit of happiness

As the campaigning has already begun for the next presidential election of the United States, I urge your to consider writing and promoting your beliefs. Let your governors, congresspersons and senators know where you stand on this critical issue and how it will affect your vote. Make your voice known and heard! Make the right to life a critical issue.

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE , FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT
“For the flesh has desires against the Spirit and the Spirit against the flesh.”

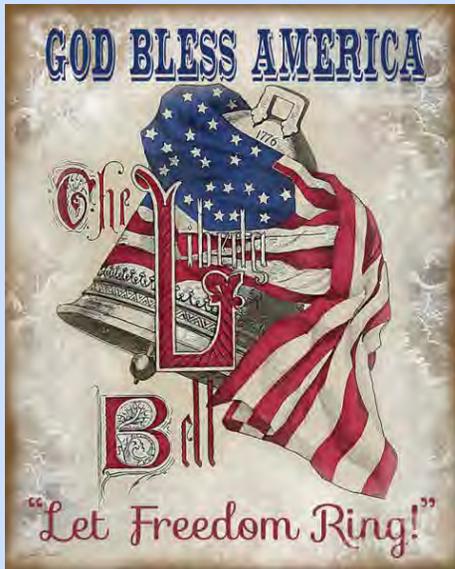

God asks us to be spiritual not worldly; be of the Spirit not the flesh. Today the works of the world and of the flesh are obvious. They include impurity, immorality, selfishness, licentiousness, hatred, jealousy, envy, etc.

Acts of the flesh lead to death temporally (abortion) and spiritually (hell). Be guided by the Spirit and live eternally with our Lord in His immense endless love.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PRAYER

Dear Lord,

There is no greater feeling of liberty than to experience freedom from sin and death that you provided for me through Jesus Christ. Today my heart and my soul are free to praise you. For this, I am very thankful.

On this Independence Day, I am reminded of all those who have sacrificed for my freedom, following the example of your Son, Jesus Christ. Let me not take my freedom, both physical and spiritual, for granted. May I always remember that a very high price was paid for my freedom. My freedom cost others their very lives.

Lord, today, bless those who have served and continue to give their lives for my freedom. With favor and bounty, meet their needs and watch over their families.

Dear Father in Heaven,

I am thankful for this nation. For all the sacrifices others that made to build and defend this country. I am grateful. Thank you for the opportunities and Freedoms we have in the United States of America. Help me never to take these blessings for granted.

Help me to live my life in a way that glorifies you, Lord. Give me the strength to be a blessing in someone's life today, and grant me the opportunity to lead others into the freedom that can be found in knowing Jesus Christ.

In your name, I pray. Amen

PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace,
as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces.
Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing.
Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light.
To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever.

Amen.

SAINT MARIA GORETTI

O God, Author of innocence and lover of chastity, You conferred on St. Maria, Your handmaid the grace of martyrdom at a youthful age. Through her intercession, grant us constancy in Your commandments, You who gave the crown to a virgin who fought for You.

CHURCH OF THE SACRED HEART ALTAR ROSARY SOCIETY

The women of the Sacred Heart Rosary Altar Society are a dynamic mix of vital, interesting women. We are homemakers, nurses, teachers, doctors, business women, business owners, social workers, dog breeders, florists, interior decorators, professor, administrators, engineers, secretaries and more!

We meet on the third Tuesday of each month in the Spring and Fall.

After praying the Rosary at 7:10 pm and Mass at 7:30 pm, we have a short business meeting in the Church hall followed by an interesting program, conversation and refreshments.

Our main purpose is responsibility for the altar and fund raising for many local charities such as St. Gregory's Pantry & Valentine House as well as a scholarship to Georgian Court University for a student studying to enter one of the helping professions.

We invite all women of the parish to come to one of our meetings and check us out!

You may be delightfully surprised!

WE ARE NOT YOUR MOTHER'S ALTAR ROSARY SOCIETY!

Next meeting will be September 17, 2019 at 7:10 PM in the Church.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 30, 2019

RADICAL TRANSFORMATION

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings describe anything but an ordinary time. They are disturbing and they leave us disturbed. The Old Testament reading recounts a young man's radical break with the past to follow a new path. The Gospel describes how life as we know it is abruptly changed if we follow the call of Christ. The psalm and Paul assure us that such life-altering change is possible only because of the power of God's love. We are presented with a stark choice. To love as God loves, we must leave our old lives behind. We must leave behind not just the bad, the selfish, and the evil but the ordinary, our daily work, and the important, our families, our lives. Loving as God loves requires a radical transformation, not a smooth transition.

FANTASY

If a nation expects to be ignorant and free, in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be.

—Thomas Jefferson

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Processions are life's journey distilled. We move with companions, aware that Christ accompanies us, as we move to the altar for Communion or to the font for baptism, or carry a loved one to a place of rest. In Europe, the season of pilgrimage is beginning now, and tens of thousands of people are moving by foot on well-worn paths. Some take as long as six weeks to walk the last few hundred miles of the medieval pilgrimage route to the Shrine of St. James the Apostle in Compostella, in northern Spain.

Those who make the journey by foot, hiking, or by bicycle, have a kind of passport stamped at villages and monasteries on the road. When they present this document at the cathedral, they are given the emblem of a pilgrim, the scallop shell of St. James. High over their heads at Mass, a huge botafumero twirls clouds of sweet incense through the cathedral. Cynics say it is to mask the odor of smelly feet. The pilgrims know better. Seeing through the clouds the happy faces of those they met along the road, they recognize a foretaste of the welcome into heaven, and the joy of meeting loved ones in the Kingdom of God.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant (1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21).

Psalm — You are my inheritance, O Lord (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Beware that you are not consumed by one another (Galatians 5:1, 13-18).

Gospel — Go and proclaim the kingdom of God (Luke 9:51-62).
