15th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 14, 2019

Marriages: This great sacrament is a joyous time, but also a time of serious spiritual preparation. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek to prepare for the second day and beyond. The Bishops of NJ have adopted a policy to assist in this preparation.

Attendance at Engaged Encounter, Pre-Cana, or another approved marriage prep program, and individual sessions with a priest or deacon are required of all couples. Couples should contact the Rectory one year in advance of the intended marriage, and before finalizing other details particularly reception facilities.

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Parents seeking baptism for their children are to attend a Baptismal Prep Class. This can be arranged by calling the parish office. Parents should be registered members of the parish. Godparents, those who represent the church in the life of the child, must be practicing Catholics, if they are married, they must have been married in the Church, practice the faith regularly, and must obtain a sponsor certificate from their home parish. Please choose Godparents with these criteria in mind.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals: Please call the Rectory.

From Father Doug:

This is just about the middle of the summer. Proof of the phrase “tempus fugit”, time flies. I am once again amazed by the attendance at both parishes, proving that the Church is us, not what the papers say, not what happens in Rome, but what you get by coming to hear God’s Word, and to be fed on His Body and Blood. But we all can help in another way, in a tangible and local way. In both churches, largely unnoticed are containers for food. At Sacred Heart the gifts go to St. Gregory’s Pantry, at St. Pio to St. Francis Food Pantry. If the donations would match the attendance, we would be set for the lean winter months. Think what an example it is when with your children in Acme or Stop-n-Shop or whatever your grocer of choice you show them the importance of just a few items for those in need.

Respect for Life cannot not be limited to the thresholds of life, we are committed to respect, care for, and nurture human life throughout life, especially when it is most difficult for those whose lives are precious even in we have to look hard to see it.

So enjoy the rest of the summer, but don’t forget those whose need allows them no vacation. Enjoy! Re-create! Be refreshed and renewed!

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE , FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT

“Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

At the time of this Gospel it was unheard that a woman would assume a place of such importance at the feet of the speaker. It reveals Jesus attitude toward the importance of women.

More importantly this Gospel points to the significance of Jesus’ words for life eternal.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL NEEDS HELP!

“The 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal is experiencing a very challenging year thus far. Contributions are down 20% across the Diocese. The Appeal is the source of support for all our diocesan works and ministries. Please take a moment to consider how you can help if you have not done so already. Your participation is essential if we want to continue our ministries as we have done. Thank you for your consideration. Many blessings.”

Bishop David M. O’Connell, C.M.

At both Sacred Heart & St. Pio Parish our collection is only 75% of our goal. Thank you to all who have already made a donation. If you haven’t, please consider making a gift. Contribution cards and more information is available at the doors of the church.

Each of us has a vital part in all we do in Christ’s name, and each of us can share in all we do with a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Our single Act of Faith propels the works of love that build up our Church. You make that happen with a generous gift to the ACA. Your contribution does make a difference! Please contribute. Please make a pledge.

From Fr. Joe

At the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, I preached about praying the Morning Offering as a way of beginning the day by offering everything we do and say as a prayer. A parishioner asked if I could provide a copy of the prayer and I thought others might appreciate a copy as well. Below is a copy of the traditional Morning prayer which you can pray as is or adapt it to your own way of praying. For example, I add my own prayer intentions and people who I am praying for before the Amen. There are also other versions you can find on the internet by typing: “morning offering.”

*O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, for the salvation of souls, the reparation of sins, the reunion of all Christians, and in particular for the intention of the Holy Father this month. Amen*

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands. (3 times)*

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING

It's time! Say "YES" to God's Plan for Married Life!

NFP methods represent authentic family planning. They can be used to both achieve and to postpone a pregnancy.

NFP makes use of periodic abstinence based upon the observation of the woman's natural signs of fertility in order to space births or to limit the number of children when there is a serious reason to do so...this practice fosters in couples an attitude of respect and wonder in the face of human life, which is sacred! It also fosters profound respect for one's spouse, which is necessary for...authentic intimacy.

GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells.

Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the "baptism of the bells," recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell's voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There's no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The word of the LORD is very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — The Samaritan traveler was moved with compassion at the sight of the man stripped and beaten by robbers (Luke 10:25-37).

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: St. Bonaventure
Tuesday: Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Thursday: St. Camillus de Lellis
Saturday: St. Apollinaris; Blessed Virgin Mary

HAPPINESS

Since happiness is nothing else but the enjoyment of the Supreme good, and the Supreme good is above us, no one can be happy who does not rise above oneself.

—St. Bonaventure

WISDOM

Wisdom has been defined as knowing the difference between pulling your weight and throwing it around.
