17th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 28, 2019

Marriages: This wonderful sacrament is a joyous time, but also a rewarding spiritual journey. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek that you both flourish the second day and beyond. We are happy to accompany you on your journey. The Bishops of NJ have adopted a policy to assist in this preparation. Engaged Encounter, Pre-Cana, or another approved marriage prep program, are required and individual visits with your priest or deacon will also assist you in your preparation. Couples should contact the Rectory one year in advance of the intended marriage, and before finalizing other details particularly reception facilities.

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Parents seeking baptism for their children are to attend a Baptismal Prep Class. This can be arranged by calling the parish office. Godparents, those who represent the church in the life of the child, must be practicing Catholics, if they are married, they must have been married in the Church, practice the faith regularly, and must obtain a sponsor certificate from their home parish. Please choose Godparents with these criteria in mind.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals: Please call the Rectory.

*Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.
2 Corinthians 9:7*

From Father Doug:

Many people have asked me about the reports that the Pope wants to change the Lord's Prayer. The text comes from Sacred Scripture, but the accounts of Jesus' giving the prayer to his disciples are not identical between the Gospels (Matthew 6:9-13; Luke 11:2-4). It was originally written in the Greek of the gospels, later translated to Latin. Some scholars say that in the earliest days of the Church many people prayed it in their own languages.

Before the Second Vatican Council, the Latin was used in Holy Mass, and it was only prayed by the priest. In private devotions people used the version we have now; a translation that is very close to the one other ecclesial communities translated into English. Translations are always imprecise. The Lord's Prayer as we know it has been so engrained in our minds that changing it would be far more difficult than "And with your spirit" which actually went well.

This has happened before with the "Glory be". There is the one that ends "is now and ever shall be world without end." In the Liturgy of the Hours, the required prayer of clergy, many religious, and many lay people has a different version of the "Glory to the Father.....as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever." So in the official prayer of the Church we have one version, but when we pray with the faithful it is a different version.

The bottom line is the Pope has not imposed his version on the English speaking Catholics. He seems to be speculating, and making some valid points; but I don't think anyone believes that God would draw us into temptation, but they believe He offers assistance when we face temptation. Most importantly, the German Bishops rejected the change, and he did not impose it. So it is highly unlikely it will change in the English liturgy.

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE , FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT

"And even when you were dead in transgressions he brought you along with him, having forgiven us all us transgressions."

When we accept the good news of the gospel and God's love, we believe in Jesus Christ as our savior. Through Jesus' suffering, death and resurrection our whole being has been affected through forgiveness of sin and resurrection to a new life.

Welcome to life—life eternal.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

After 8:30 am Mass

FIRST FRIDAY, AUGUST 2ND

*“The love of God and neighbor, the greatest commandment, expressed in and the fruit of, Eucharistic worship.”
-Pope St. John Paul II*

Do you wish to deepen your prayer life? The same Jesus who taught his disciples how to pray is there to help you as well, and what better place to contemplate Jesus - the highest form of prayer - than in his presence?

Set aside some time during these hectic summer months to visit Jesus and pray. Pray for your family, pray for yourself, pray for our increasingly dark and troubled world.
Find peace in our Lord.

Benediction at Noon

SAINT MARTHA

St. Martha, pray for us that we might serve Jesus better. Help us to overcome our distractions and worries to listen to his words and be present to him this day. Amen

SAINT PETER CHRYSOLOGUS

BISHOP AND-DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

O God, who made the Bishop Saint Peter Chrysologus an outstanding preacher of your incarnate Word, grant, through his intercession, that we may constantly ponder in our hearts the mysteries of your salvation and faithfully express them in what we do. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

*“The man of golden speech” earned the title of Doctor of the Church for his eloquent sermons.”

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING

What is NFP?

Natural Family Planning is a unique form of fertility education. Specifically, NFP is the title for moral, natural and healthy, modern and scientifically reliable methods of family planning. These methods teach married couples how to identify and understand their combined signs of fertility. The information helps married couples plan to achieve or postpone a pregnancy. NFP is morally good because it helps married couples respect God's design for married love.

ASKING FOR HELP

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today's readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things.

Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don't deserve it. In Saint Luke's Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The pilgrim experience of going by foot to Santiago de Compostella, the shrine of St. James, reached its high point this week at the feast of the Apostle, with tens of thousands of pilgrims on the road. Typically, they cover twelve to twenty miles a day through rough territory. The difficult journey and the often primitive lodging facilities are made bearable by the joy of the pilgrims, their songs and prayers. When their journey is documented properly, they receive the scallop shell, a reminder not only of James the fisherman, but also his call to fish for human beings and to baptize the nations. In the Middle Ages, those who wore this badge on their hats were granted lodging and hospitality wherever they went. Next to the palm, the sign of a Jerusalem pilgrim, the scallop shell was most highly prized.

In the Middle Ages, some people so enjoyed the pilgrim road, although it was filled with discomfort and danger, that they spent most of their lives on the road. Today, some people take up the route for exercise, but are drawn gradually into the spirituality of the journey. As you make your summer travels, always fold in an element of pilgrimage: a long walk through beautiful countryside, a visit to a church, a prayer of gratitude for your journey through life's hills and valleys.

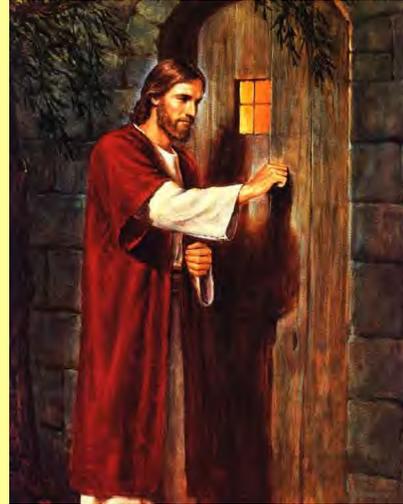

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Abraham bargains with God to spare the city (Genesis 18:20-32).

Psalm — Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me (Psalm 138).

Second Reading — You were buried with Christ in baptism, in which you were also raised with Christ (Colossians 2:12-14).

Gospel — Everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds (Luke 11:1-13).
