Marriages: This great sacrament of vocation is a joyous time, but also a time of very serious spiritual preparation. The responsibility assumed by the couple and the Church is significant. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek to prepare for the second day and beyond. The Bishops of NJ have adopted a policy to assist in this preparation. Attendance at Engaged Encounter, Pre-Cana, or another approved marriage prep program, and individual sessions with a priest or deacon are required of all couples. Couples should contact the Rectory one year in advance of the intended marriage, and before finalizing other detail particularly reception facilities.

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Parents seeking baptism for their children are to attend Baptismal Prep Class. This can be arranged by calling the parish office. Parents should be registered members of the parish. Godparents, those who represent the church in the life of the child, must be practicing Catholics, if they are married, they must have been married in the Church, practice the faith regularly, and must obtain a sponsor certificate from their home parish. Please choose Godparents with these criteria in mind.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals: Please call the Rectory.

From Father Doug:

With only a week or so left of the summer season I think we all look around and say “where did it go?” Every year I notice that as I get older time flies by more quickly, and I never get quite as much done as I hope I will. I’ve been to the beach three times this summer. I realized I went more often when I was stationed in Trenton. Everyday I go to sleep with things left on my “to do” list, and every day I aim to be more efficient, more diligent, more productive. Sometimes I realize that’s a trap. Yes, we all must be diligent, remember “sloth” is more than just a curious animal it is a sin, but we should focus more on who we are rather than what we do. Balancing diligent work, careful attention to the accomplishment of the gospel command to works of charity for those in need, we also focus on our need to care for our selves, to be responsible about who we are becoming rather than just what we are accomplishing.

We are mindful that in a couple of weeks at both St. Pio and Sacred Heart, Mass attendance will take a dip until Memorial Day. Soon the traffic lights will blink, the speed limit increase, and parking will be a snap. September can be an incredible month. But most miss it because life goes into high gear.

I am always impressed by the number of people who go to Mass on vacation. Daily Mass has been well attended, and standing room only on several occasions at St. Pio’s Chapel. Sometimes, though, we forget. Sometimes we add Mass to our list of things to do. It’s a habit, a very good habit, but we can be tempted to let that be our religion for the week. We do the same thing with prayer; it’s another task on a list that we hope with end up with a checkmark next to it at the end of the day. But prayer reflects a relationship, hopefully an intimate one. Would we ever put on a list “say hello to my kids” or “Don’t forget to say I love you to my spouse.” No. That’s not how relationships work. Prayer shouldn’t be like that either.

In the last days of summer, it’s a good time to think about the life that returns in a few days. First, we give thanks for the gift of being able to enjoy the beauty and opportunities offered by this spectacular part of the world. We all need to realize how blessed we are to be here. That spirit of gratitude can make a difference long after we have returned to the lives we live for the other ten months of the year. Before life picks up pace, we can resolve to think more about who we are than what we do, and maybe we can make prayer and Mass attendance more a part of who we are than just one of the things we do.

Enjoy these last days of summer. We would all do well to count our blessings!

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT

“Master to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.”

Words as relevant today as when St. Peter spoke them to Jesus.

In today’s culture of death we also ask “Master to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.”

WELCOME, MARTA!

Hello! I am very happy to be a part of your parish. Here's a little bit about me and what I'll be doing.

I hold a B.S. in Business Management from St. John's University, NY and recently completed a M.S. in Church Management from Villanova University, PA. After a corporate career in Marketing & Sales Administration selling Manufacturing Software, I spent 9 years at a large parish in the Diocese of Paterson, and then 5 years at a set of linked parishes in our diocese.

My job at Sacred Heart will be shared 50/50 with St. Pio's in Lavallette. I will oversee all aspects of the temporal affairs of the parish including Financial Administration, Human Resources, and the Physical Plant facilities. This means I will help Fr. Doug with the day-to-day operational activities so that he has more time to attend to the spiritual, pastoral and sacramental needs of parishioners.

I reside with my husband in Eatontown, NJ and have 2 grown children: my daughter & son-in-law are both Licensed Professional Counselors in private practice and they have a 1-year old, my grandson Teddy! My son is a priest in the Paterson Diocese and has just been appointed the Administrator of St. Francis de Sales parish in Vernon, NJ.

I look forward to getting to know all of you and if you have any comments or concerns about the parish please leave me a message and I'll get back to you!

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HOUSEHOLDS IN GOD'S SERVICE

In the ancient world, "household" was a wide-reaching concept. When Joshua today speaks of his household serving the Lord, he meant not just those people who lived inside his walls or those related to him by blood or marriage; he meant slaves or servants and their families, and anyone indebted to him in any way. Even his livestock and other possessions would be consecrated to service of God. In our world, we value allowing individuals their freedom to choose how they live, and wouldn't think of offering our pets to the service of God. But, as we discern our vocation as disciples baptized into Christ, we can come to realize how far-ranging the "households" of our lives still are: how we act toward our spouses, children, roommates or anyone we live with; our behavior with neighbors; or in public as we encounter many "strangers" every day in stores or traffic who suddenly are "next door" to us. How can we use our time, our resources, or gifts for selfless reasons rather than personal gain? No matter what life our witness to the Good News calls us to, we all have a "household" that must be consecrated to service of the Lord our God.

As for me and my household,
we will serve the Lord.

Joshua 24:15 b

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD, our God, protected us along our entire journey (Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b).

Psalm — Taste and see the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — Christ nourishes and cherishes the church because we are members of his body (Ephesians 5:21-32 [5:2a, 25-32]).

Gospel — We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God (John 6:60-69).
